

June 06, 2016 12:46PM

Print Page

Goodnow Library exhibiting Sudbury painter's work

SUDBURY — Sudbury painter and instructor, Michelle Garro, and her students have more 50 artworks displayed in the Sudbury Goodnow Library, 21 Concord Road, Sudbury, through the end of June.

She will have original oil paintings on display in the McQueen exhibit area and her students' work will be on display in the Community room.

In 2004, Garro opened Garro Studios at Artspace Maynard which provides year-round private and group drawing and painting instruction for all ages and levels of experience.

Visit garrostudios.com to learn more about Garro's work, summer programs and classes.

"Wave IV" by Michelle Garro. Courtesy Photo

<http://sudbury.wickedlocal.com/article/20160606/NEWS/160607512>

Print Page